ARTICLE 1 – PREAMBLE

We, as members of the Information and Communications Technology Association of Zambia do recognize the importance of our profession as we are now in the information age era. We acknowledge the supremacy of this Constitution and pledge to uphold and protect it severally and jointly as an Association.

We further acknowledge that this Constitution is intended to serve the interests of all its members, among other things, by spelling out the rights and obligations of the individual members on one hand and the Association as a whole, on the other hand. We the members unanimously submit to this Constitution here established.

The name of the Association shall be “The Information and Communications Technology Association of Zambia” hereinafter referred to as ICTAZ. ICTAZ is established under Section 3 of the Information and Communications Technology Association of Zambia Act No. 7 of 2018.

It was formerly known as Computer Society of Zambia which was registered under the Societies Act. ICTAZ is a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal, capable of suing and being sued in its corporate name.

The primary purpose of ICTAZ is to undertake all such acts and things as are necessary to foster the advancement of the information and communications technology profession.

We therefore acknowledge the fact that this Constitution shall bind all members of ICTAZ, both present and future.
